The Bronx also proved its right to be assed among the perfect perambulate resorts by having a representative in the prize winning group. Mary Cornelle, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Cornellie of 268 East 143d street, upheld the reputation of her borough by winning the first prize in the 6 years and under class.

Queens also has some claim to dis tinction based on the fact that Madeline Robinson, the seven-month-old daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson of 227 Van Alst avenue, Long Island City, was awarded second prize. The borough's spirit was somewhat humbied later when Harry Kleiner, prize winner in the Queens contest, was outdisplace. Harry, who is a superbaby type, large, lusty and blond, was disgusted. He had removed his rompers, subnitted to the doctors' thumping, meas uring and weighing, had welked for the critical group of grownups, including a corps of nurses; had posed for the movie man and the other phofographers, and after all that display of beauty and perfection a chit of a girl, more than a year younger, received the prize.
